

PRESS RELEASE

For further information contact: Houston Putnam Lowry, Esq. (203) 235-1651

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LOCAL LAWYER APPOINTED TO UNITED NATIONS

(Friday, October 04, 2002, Meriden, CT) Houston Putnam Lowry, Esq. of the Brown & Welsh, P.C. law firm (<http://brownwelsh.com>) was appointed as the American Bar Association's (<http://www.abanet.org/>) representative to the United Nations Economic and Social Council (<http://www.un.org/esa/coordination/ecosoc/>).

The council is one of the five principal organs of the United Nations. Its primary responsibilities are international economic, social, cultural, educational, health, and related matters. Its agenda includes human rights, family, technology and development issues (such as the World Bank and International Monetary Fund).

“The council has an active agenda in very important areas,” says Lowry. “The American Bar Association can make a positive contribution to improve the human condition by continuing to work with the Council.”

Brown & Welsh practices business law (domestic and international) and related litigation, arbitration and mediation, including contracts, Uniform Commercial Code (sale of goods, promissory notes, electronic transfer of funds, letters of credit and security interests), bankruptcy, and computer law (including domain name disputes and identity theft).